HGH AUXILIARY
Hancock General Hospital Auxiliary regular monthly meeting on Thursday, May 1, 10:00 a.m.

The status of U. S. Highway 90 through Bay St. Louis and Waveland is now 4-lane instead of 2-lane. Southern District Highway Commissioner W. H. "Shag" Pyron, taking note of the occasion, announced that safe, 4-lane traveling will soon be Hancock County motorists' to enjoy even more, referring to work already underway on Mississippi 607 and a section of Interstate 10.

The 4-lane traffic flow started on new Highway 90 recently at which time Project Engineer A. J. "Jack" Green of the Mississippi State Highway Department effected a directive to open all lanes of the five mile stretch of heavily-traveled Highway 90 to all traffic.

Green, whose project force supervised the Bay St. Louis-Waveland road-building, has asked motorists to drive with caution, for construction is still underway on essential curb and erosion control items. Commissioner Pyron said on the occasion of spanning the area with 4-lane roads that "all principal Mississippi cities and towns located along the important U.S. Highway are now served by a 4-lane Highway."

He noted again that construction has already started on the paving project designed to connect Highway 90 and Interstate 10 via Mississippi 607. "When this $2 million facility is completed in the summer of 1970, a 4-lane route will be provided for residents of New Orleans and other points west to visit Mississippi's beautiful Gulf Coast vacationland." Meantime, it is intended by the Mississippi State Highway Commission that bids for approximately 11 miles of grade, drain and bridge work on Interstate 10 will be received in June.

The $10 million project, which will include an interchange at U.S. Highway 49 and I-10 just north of Gulfport, means that almost 40 miles of Interstate through Hancock and Harrison Counties will be under grade, drain and bridge construction obligation. Total distance of I-10 across Mississippi's three Gulf Coast counties will be 77.3 miles. The intended June contract will carry the Interstate roadway from Wolf River to Biloxi River in Harrison County, and to within about five miles of the Jackson County Line.

Unauthorized Credit Cards Used by Bay Man

Louis Anthony DeSalvo 42, of Bay St. Louis is out on $1,000 bond, pending extradition proceedings by Louisiana authorities in connection with charges of unauthorized use of credit card for theft. According to Mississippi Highway Patrol investigators T. P. Naylor and T. L. Lott. The New Orleans Police Department had issued warrants on DeSalvo and another man, James Conley 40, of Long Beach. A BankAmericard spokesman in Jackson stated that several credit card companies have been troubled recently by fraudulent use of credit cards in both New Orleans and the Gulf Coast area.

Russ, III, vice-president of the board; Dolph Kellar, Joe Cuevas, and Peck Maufrey, board members.

Chamber Dinner Set Wednesday

The first quarterly dinner of the Chamber for the 1969 year will be held Wednesday, April 30, 1969, at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

An excellent speaker Mr. Van King, NASA, has been selected for the occasion, who will explain the Bomez Program and the research from this program is assembled at the NASA MTF Facility, and is world-wide in scope, felt it is that many local residents are not fully aware of its functions, and would appreciate having this opportunity to have this information given them first hand.

Cost for the evening is $4.50. Reservations should be made as early as possible by calling the Chamber of Commerce 467-4883, or mail your check for the number of reservations you desire to the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, P. O. Box 280, Bay St. Louis, Miss. Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m.

Commission Opens Bids

Bids pertaining to 4 coporate contracts were received Tuesday afternoon by the Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission. These bids were concerning the following: 1. Aircraft Hanger for the airport facility 2. Artesian Water Well at the West Hancock County Harbor and Industrial Area 3. Access Road Surfacing at the West Hancock County Harbor and Industrial Area 4. Clearing and Grubbing at the West Hancock Harbor and Industrial Area.

No action was taken at the meeting on the bids—they were turned over to the commissions engineers for advisement.

The building itself consists of a lower level and seven floors. A computer center, mailroom, duplicating equipment, and building services facilities are in the lower level. Conveniently located on the ground floor are the merchandise sales area, customer collections office, and a 150-seat auditorium with adjoining kitchen. On the second floor are the offices of the Gulfport Division. The Operating Department occupies the third floor and shares the fourth floor with the Sales Department, Purchasing and the Accounting and Treasury Departments are housed on the fifth floor. The Executive Offices, General Services, Personnel, Advertising, Safety, and Claims Departments are located on the sixth floor. The seventh floor accommodates the mechanical equipment with considerable unfilled space for future use. Two additional floors can be added later when needed.

For the convenience of customers and employees, there is a large 175-space parking lot adjoining the building.

The Mississippi Power Company offices are lighted in accordance with standards of the Illuminating Engineering Society. It is the first structure on the Mississippi Gulf Coast to utilize the Heat-of-Light principle where circulated heat from the lighting system is used to warm the building.

The public is invited to participate in the formal opening.

TO DANCE SATURDAY (Mexican Hat Dance) will be these 1st graders of Christ Episcopal Day School. The annual Mexican Spring Festival will be at 8:00 p.m. on the school campus. CLOSET CARE

Never put away a dirty garment. Stains are attractive to moths. Have it cleaned. Give your drycleaner time to get your clothes back to you when you need them.

Remove lint and dust with a brush or lint roller before you put away your clothes.

Leave space between garments in your closet so they'll air and avoid creasing one another.

Close slippers and front openings.

Protect with dust covers over shoulders of store in garment bags.

Hang on a pole high enough so long things hang free.

Separate dark from light clothes.

Remove and destroy the light plastic bags from your cleaner. Don't allow children to play with them.

CLOSET INVENTORY

Don't clutter your closet with out-of-season clothes. Your drycleaner will store them for you safely and economically and return them when you need them again - clean, pressed and ready to wear.

Mississippi Accepts The Ocean Challenge

Governor John Bell Williams announced Thursday the appointment of a special council to guide the state of Mississippi into the field of oceanography. Governor's declaration was the climax of an eight-day tour of the Gulf of Mexico, called for the purpose of identifying the state's potential for the state's marine activities.

The Marine Resource Council will work as an integral part of the existing Agricultural and Industrial Board, according to Williams. He said the council will be composed of more than three representatives from the coastal communities, universities, and managers of federal installations, among others. Williams said the council will be established to develop the state's marine resources and to achieve these high goals.

Governor Williams made the decision on basis of study findings presented earlier during the conference. A California-based firm, Marine Resources Consultants, Inc., had been chartered by the A & I Board to study the benefits which will accrue to Mississippi from entry into this new field. In a hard-hitting presentation, Dr. John Gustavson, president of the firm, presented a study of the gross state product from this new source alone at 30% in 1970.

The following persons to serve with him on the new Council: Jackson M. Baker, Bay St. Louis, manager, Mississippi Test Facility; Senator Ben Stone, Gulfport; A. F. Dandaz, Pascagoula businessman; Brad Dye, Jr., director of the Agricultural and Industrial Board; Robert B. Everett, Jackson businessman; Dr. Porter L. Fortune, Jr., Chancellor of the University of Mississippi; Ellis B. Gardner, Pascagoula, president of Ingalls Shipbuilding Corporation; Dr. W. L. Giles, president of Mississippi State University; Dr. W. D. McCain, president of the University of Southern Mississippi; Martin R. McLendon, Assistant State Attorney General; John R. Picard, Bay St. Louis, general manager, General Electric Co.-Mississippi Test Facility; Dr. E. E. Thrash, Executive Secretary, Board of Trustees, Institutions of Higher Learning; Dr. F. M. Fortenberry, supervisor of Junior Colleges; Bill Dorsett, Biloxi resort hotel manager; W. Calvin Wells, Jackson attorney; James K. Oresham, Greenville radio station manager; James O. Cagle, Columbia, Pearl River Electric Power Association; and Representative Dave Halbrook, Beizoni.

He said that Paul Fugate of the A & I Board would serve as the executive secretary of the Council during its formative stage.

In his report, Dr. Gustavson pointed out that the State could clear the way for the desired development in oceanics through a combination of legislation, support, and cooperation. Legislation was recommended in the fields of protection of fisheries, regulation of offshore oil and control of water pollution.

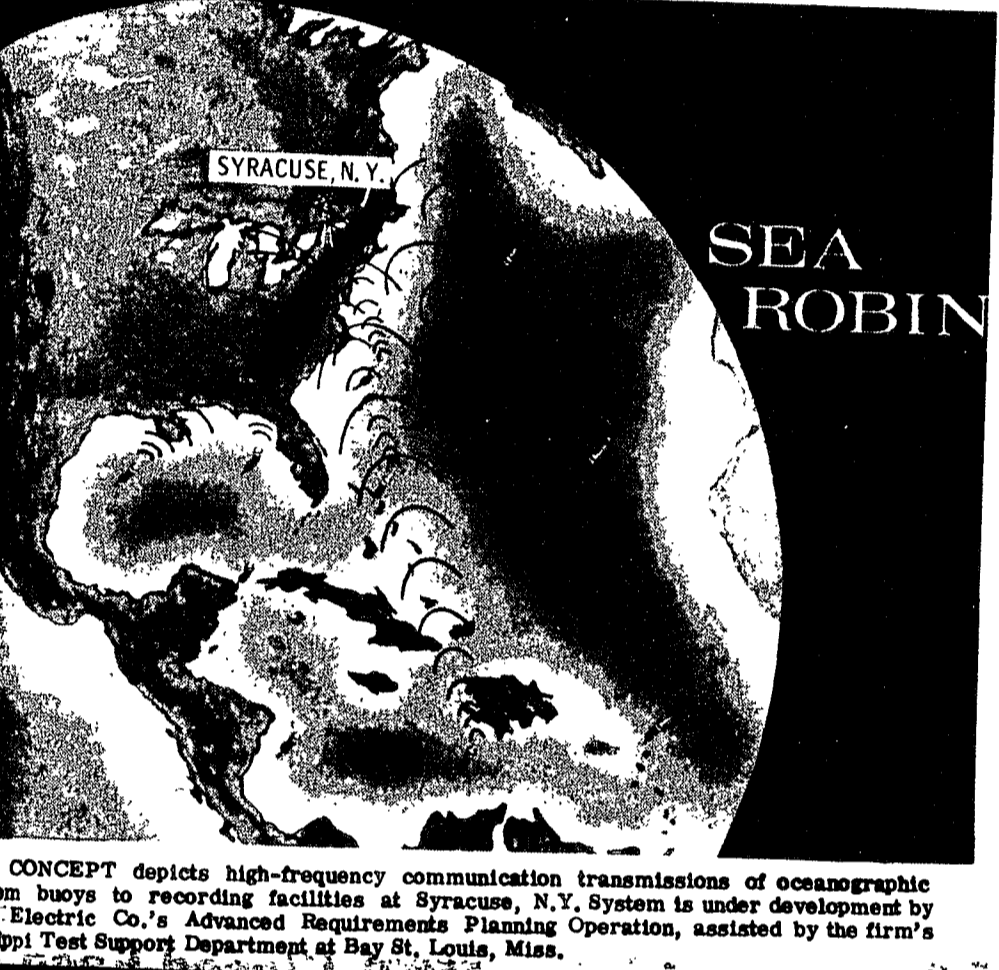

State support would be required in the development of shore facilities, including port installations for containerized cargo, commercial harbors for offshore service industry, and marinas for pleasure boating. A coastal engineering program would provide development of the State's valuable beaches for multiple use with special emphasis on progressive recreation industry.

"We shall now proceed vigorously," Governor Williams told the group, "and provide an environment for growth which will surpass even our State's entry into oil production in 1939. I am confident, because practically everyone involved in Mississippi coastal planning activities has contributed to this special study."

Dr. Gustavson recommended that special state support in the form of pioneer industry incentives be the subject of detailed study for legislative action where necessary. Marine Resource Consultants, he said, has found this approach very successful in other development programs. He suggested that industries which might be considered for such support in the form of tax incentives, soft loans and technical assistance include mariculture, boat building and others.

Educational support and vocational training figured high

According to the Consultant's study, the Mississippi Test Facility is uniquely suited to oceanographic work because of its large unused potential of highly sophisticated equipment and prime location. It already plays a significant role as the data center for the Borex oceanographic program including a multitude of federal agencies.

Present state plans call for addition of academic facilities to provide dormitories and classrooms for graduate studies at the facility.

GULF COAST TECHNICAL INSTITUTE

It was with a great deal of surprise that I learned that the Gulf Coast Technical Institute was to be moved from the temporary facilities in Gulfport to the campus of Mississippi State University at Starkville. Although this training center was located in the city of Gulfport in Harrison County, by its title it was designated to be a technical institute for the Gulf Coast area. I do not consider the three coast counties to be the exclusive area to be served by this institute, and when voting to continue this fine training facility it was deemed to be voting for the continuance of an institution that is sorely needed in the southern portion of the state. I believe that the statistics speak for themselves. The increased number of graduates and the monetary return being provided to the state of Mississippi speaks loudly for the continuance of this institution in this area.

As previously stated, the first indication that I heard of the removal of this facility was on the Monday afternoon addition of the Daily Herald. I was further surprised that no mention had been given to the fact that there is located on the Mississippi Gulf Coast a facility, the whole of which has been dedicated to the technical sciences and which is presently seeking additional missions to be performed. The facility I am speaking of is the Mississippi Test Facility of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration located in Hancock County, Mississippi. It is my belief that this facility is particularly adaptive to the needs of such a technical institute, and I am sure that there are available facilities for such a program. I have not as yet taken this matter up with the NASA officials but intend to talk to Stennis as well as the Board of Trustees of the Institutions of Higher Learning to determine whether or not the NASA facilities would be available for such a program.

The rate of growth in the Southern part of the state speaks for itself; the technological advances and industrial and industrial development along the Coast and in the southern area of Mississippi leads one to the inevitable conclusion that in order for Mississippians to be employed in these industries and for those Mississippians already employed to advance in their technology, that an institution such as the Gulf Coast Technical Institute should be located in the southern area of Mississippi.

I have today written a letter to Dr. E.E. Thrash, the Executive Secretary of the Board of Trustees of the Institutions of Higher Learning, asking that he take this matter up with the Board and urge them to do everything that they possibly could to locate the Gulf Coast Technical Institute in the NASA facilities which are particularly suited for this type of endeavor.

Conservation County Agents Notes

Are you leasing your land? Soil and Water conservation should receive top priority in leasing on the lease," said L. C. Sparks, Conservationist, today.

Many landowners make the mistake of leasing their land without any definite understanding regarding maintenance of conservation or proper care of the land and its resources, thereon. Consequently, says Mr. Sparks, much good conservation is destroyed and property values are lowered.

"To prevent deterioration of land and to insure sustained production, Mr. Sparks emphasized, "there is a necessity for a definite understanding between lessor and lessee regarding upkeep of conservation practices and proper utilization of the land to be leased.

Agreements on farm drainage, terracing, natural drainage, diversions, ponds and levees, fences, grazing limitations, woodland, and use of ACP wood, Mr. Sparks would be expected to be the usual contract. Conservation, points out Mr. Sparks, "landowners must be made to realize that conservation is not a luxury but a necessity. Leases are now being drawn up to year contracts, and the same stringency is being applied to a definite understanding of the conservation practices to be made to maintain a good soil and water conservation program that will maintain the land. Conservation can be guaranteed by a written agreement in the rental agreement.

John W. Smith
County Agent

Hancock County has five aides at work in an expanded food and nutrition educational program conducted by the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service, according to John W. Smith, county agent.

They will help disadvantaged families to improve their diet. Families will receive free individual help with the specifics of better meal planning, food purchasing and food preparation.

Each aide will work with about 40 families. The aides are non-professionals selected from or near the areas that they will serve. They have been trained by Miss Ruth Strahan, the local Extension Home Economist. Their work is part time.

Such aides are being employed in 75 of Mississippi's 82 counties as part of a national program. The effectiveness of the program will be studied. "Food and nutrition education is one of the oldest programs of the Extension Service. We believe that this expansion is better serve some who need it the most will help to meet one of the greatest needs of our people," the county agent added.

Intelligence Reports Look Bad On Vietnam

By Drow Poerson

Intelligence reports contradict the optimistic talk around Washington of an early settlement of the Vietnam war. High government officials are spreading the word that North Vietnam, recognizing the hopelessness of its military situation, can be expected to come to terms this year.

On the contrary, intelligence reports indicate that North Vietnam is pouring men and materials into the south for a last great battle. The communist aim, according to captured documents, is to capture Saigon by Ho Chi Minh's birthday, May 19, and rename it Ho Chi Minh City.

The clandestine "Liberation Radio," secretly monitored by the U.S. has been exhorting the Viet Cong "to achieve resounding victories to greet the forthcoming 70th birthday of President Ho on May 19. The great offensives of the south, together with the brilliant exploits of the north, will rejuvenate Uncle Ho, strengthen him and prolong his life, and will help the southern patriots soon achieve their ultimate dream: to meet Uncle Ho in South Vietnam, in the midst of the jungles of victorious flags."

Another message, addressed to "Dear Saigon, Capital of Dixie, Communist, living and fighting in the heart of the enemy's nerve center," declared: "You competitors are entrusted by history and the people with a very heavy but also a very glorious task--knocking out the land grabbers and country-sellers in the last victorious battle."

"Heroic Saigon-Cholon-Gia Dinh is determined to be worthy of the title 'Great Fortress of the Fatherland of the Heroic'."

South, worthy of our nation, worthy of the solicitude of brothers and friends the world over, and worthy of being called the Ho Chi Minh City."

The communist strategy, according to captured documents, is "to over-throw the country-selling and people-harming Thieu-Ky clique and form a peace cabinet that can seriously negotiate with the (National Liberation Front)."

To carry out this objective, North Vietnamese troops are now moving down the Ho Chi Minh trail and across the DMZ in alarming numbers. No doubt Ho would like to follow and celebrate his 70th birthday in Saigon.

DIRKSEN'S JOB DRIVE
Everett Dirksen, the tubed Senator Republican Leader, has been rumbling petulantly over the Nixon administration's failure to provide employment for all his cronies. A devotee of the spoils system, he believes that government jobs should go to the Republican faithful, particularly those who have been faithful to Everett Dirksen.

The Senate GOP leader dramatically demonstrated his faith in the spoils system when he publicly threatened to "go to the highest authority in this government to get somebody fired." The threat was aimed at Clifford Alexander, Jr., Negro chairman of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, who was immediately defended by Sen. Ted Kennedy, the Democratic Whip. A few days later, true to his threat, Dirksen brought pressure upon the White House to force Alexander's resignation.

He has a list of deserving

A Conservative View

by James J. Kilpatrick

A couple of years ago, in the spring of 1967, Senators Dirksen of Illinois and Hruska of Nebraska were all steamed up about the possibility of a full-blown constitutional convention -- the first since the founding fathers convened in 1787. Other interests came along, and their steam subsided. It's time to fire up the boilers again.

It may seem paradoxical for conservatives even to consider so radical an undertaking. In my own view, no paradox exists. The procedure urged by the two Senators is plainly sanctioned by the Constitution. Their purpose is to revitalize the principles of federalism, which surely are conservative principles. In the particular field of congressional redistricting, their aim is to restore certain powers, in the language of the Tenth Amendment, "to the States respectively, or to the people."

The Senators are fired up anew by the Supreme Court's fantastic opinions of April 7 in the New York and Missouri redistricting cases. In these Draconian pronouncements, the Court effectively rewrote the Constitution in order to produce its own notions of absolute egalitarianism. When it comes to drawing the boundaries of congressional districts, said the Court, the States must seek "precise mathematical equality." Any variation from this ideal, "no matter how small," must be clearly justified by unavoidable considerations.

The decision is wrong on its merits. It treats human beings not as real human beings, having common social and economic interests, but as inhuman ciphers--mere lumps of clay to be counted. The opinion ignores political realities in favor of tally-stick illusions. It repudiates the proper role of the States in our federal system.

The decision also is wrong as a matter of law. No provision of the Constitution "commands" any such impossible equality. The high court may have the power, but it certainly has not the right, to do what the court has done here.

This intolerable wrongness now can be righted only by constitutional amendment. Surely it would be preferable, as Dirksen and Hruska many times have said, for the Congress itself to initiate an appropriate resolution. But if Congress refuses, an alternate route to amendment--never before traveled--may be found in Article V.

This is what the Constitution says: "The Congress... on the application of the legislatures of two-thirds of the several States, shall call a convention for proposing amendments which... shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of this Constitution, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States, or by Conventions in three-fourths thereof, as the one or the other mode of ratification may be proposed by the Congress."

Between 1963 and 1967, when the issue was boiling, 33 State legislatures adopted resolutions applying to Congress for a convention on the redistricting problem. In one theory, only one more such legislative resolution would be required to produce the trigger two-thirds.

This theory, of course, has never been tested. The most cursory reflection evokes a hundred questions. The Constitution is not self-executing; it says that Congress "shall call a convention," but how could Congress be made to call one? How would such a convention be composed? Could a convention be held to the sole issue of redistricting, or could it propose amendments unlimited?

What of the 33 pending resolutions of application? Some date back to 1963. Are these still valid? The resolutions are not identical on the redistricting issue itself. Some of the resolutions appear never to have been filed formally with the Congress. May the meaning of Article V be construed only by the same Supreme Court which created the crisis?

These are fascinating questions for a student of our government. They all could be rendered moot, of course, if the Congress itself would fashion a constitutional amendment--or even a reasonable statute--to give the States some common-sense flexibility in providing for representative government. Unless the States have fallen into absolute torpor, they will insist upon remedial action now.

Loyalty Day Set May 1

Albert D. Biehl, Jr., Commander of VFW Post 3253, Bay St. Louis, called on all the members of his Post to fly their American flags at their respective homes and places of business on May 1st in observance of Loyalty Day.

A joint resolution of the 85th Congress designated "May 1st of each year as Loyalty Day and is to be set aside as a special day for the reaffirmation of loyalty to the United States of America and for the recognition of the heritage of American freedom."

Loyalty Day was inaugurated and developed by the Veterans of Foreign Wars as a direct and vigorous weapon against Communism since the Communists were using May Day for their hate demonstrations against our country. Therefore Commander Biehl said, "Let's run up the Stars and Stripes and put on a good lively show of pro-Americanism in action on May 1st."

Jessie Poyadov
Funeral services for Jessie Linn Poyadov, 8, son of Freda and Vestil E. Poyadov were held Tuesday morning from Jacob Schoen and Son Funeral Home followed by a Requiem Mass at Sacred Heart of Jesus Church, Interment was in Cedar Rest Cemetery, Bay St. Louis.

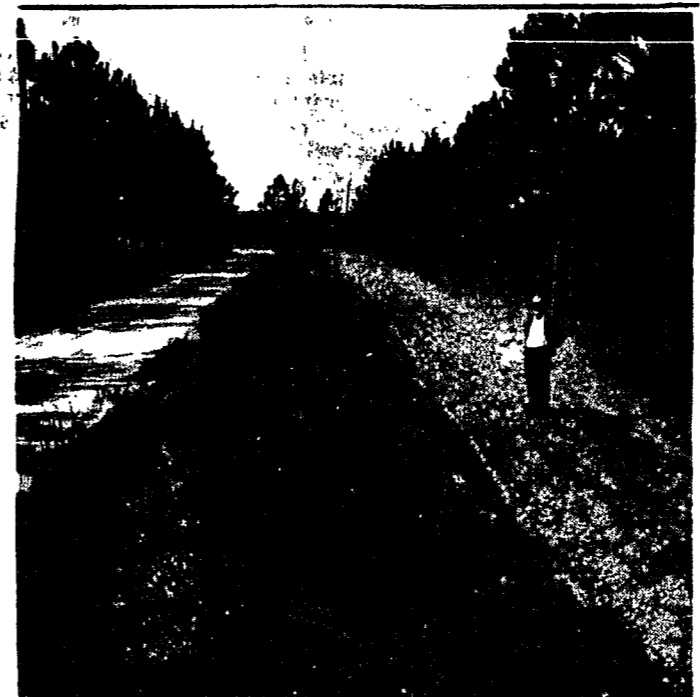

Survivors, in addition to his parents, are five brothers, Vestil E. Jr., Steve, Barry, Timothy and Tracy Poyadov; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Favre of New Orleans and grandfather, Edward J. Poyadov of Bay St. Louis.

The boy was reported drowned Saturday, April 19, at Boothville, La., while at a family outing. He was in a party crabbing from the bank of a drainage canal when the accident occurred.

MERRY GO ROUND

Lou Nichols, who left the FBI to become vice president of Schenley, the giant whiskey distiller, has told friends that he expects to succeed J. Edgar Hoover. Nichols believes he has the inside track with President Nixon, who is expected to keep Hoover on one more year, then retire him at last at the age of 75. Nichols, as vice president of Schenley, has been a leading light in the strange circle of friends of liquor tycoon Lewis Rosenstiel, including the late Cardinal Spellman, Sen. Tom Dodd, Chicago press agent Julius Klein and New York Attorney Roy Chon. . . Nixon is sidetracking the Kennedy - Johnson arts program. He let the term of Roger Stevens, chairman of the National Arts Council, expire. Maybe Dick remembers that it was Stevens who financed and produced Gore Vidal's "The Best Men," a highly successful satire on the man who was the Vice President. . . Now President Nixon has been called a "hair-shirted ascetic" in commenting the Spanish base deal as played in the old Spanish "treasure" trail. "He never knew the base government to possess the base agreement until the fall when it's based Congress will be in session."

Lakeshore Garden Club Holds Meet

The April meeting of the Lakeshore Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Mary Geyer with Mrs. Irene Graft as co-hostess.

Mrs. Grace Ortle, chairman, gave a report on the Easter egg hunt given for the Hancock County Retarded Children, noting it was a huge success and the children had a marvelous time. This is an annual affair of the Garden Club.

Final plans were made for the Hat Show to be held on May 15.

The entrance prize was won by Mrs. Pat Ladner.

Following the meeting a social hour was held, and delicious refreshments served.

Miss Sellier Honored With Shower

Mrs. Lionel Fayard and Miss Deborah Scianna hosted a miscellaneous shower Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Scianna honoring Miss Dana Sellier, bride-elect of James Thomas Fayard.

The honoree's chosen color blue was used in the decorations.

The dining room table was overlaid with a lace cloth over blue with white wedding bells hanging over the center.

Miss Sellier, who wore a large linen tulle dress for the occasion, was presented a corsage of daisies. The mother, Mrs. Frank Fayard, were each given a corsage of daisies.

Games were played and prizes won by Mrs. Al Landers and Miss Luvenia Sauter were presented to the honoree.

Miss Sellier and Mr. Fayard will be married at 8:30 p.m., May 30, in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

FOREST LANDS AID

Camp Shelby, near Hattiesburg, now is the largest National Guard Field Training Site in the United States. It covers over 130,000 acres including 1/4 Forest Lands.

Miss Johnston Honored at Shower

Miss Joel Johnston, bride-elect of Herman Ladner, was honored with a miscellaneous shower Friday night at the home of her aunt Mrs. Harold Johnston with Mrs. James Johnston as co-hostess.

The dining room table, covered with a white linen cloth, had a center arrangement of spring flowers.

Guests included Mrs. Raymond Johnston, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Lillie May Ladner, mother of the groom-to-be, and Mesdames Grace Meyer, Viola Roberts, Mary Ladner, Willie Strong, Dan Murphy, Lawrence Ladner, Lynn Necaise, Howard Carver, Thomas Godwin, Melia Dedaux, Mamie Carver, Vivian Carver, and Clois Dedaux and

Extension Club

The newly formed North Hancock Extension Homemakers Club met Friday in the home of Mrs. Pinkie Smith with eight members attending.

Miss Ruth Strahan, Extension Economist, gave some helpful hints with slides, on the vegetable and flower show, scheduled for April 30, was discussed.

The May meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. D. D. Martin.

Surprise Party

For Miss Selle

Mr. and Mrs. David French hosted a surprise party Sunday honoring Miss Ellen Selle on the occasion of her birthday and the announcement of her engagement to William H. Hicks of Pass Christian.

The honoree, in addition to an engagement ring, was presented an orchid corsage from her fiancé.

The dining room table, covered with a lace cloth over blue, had an arrangement of flowers.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Farragut and Mr. and Mrs. William G. Hicks, Pass Christian; Mr. and Mrs. E. S. French; Mr. and Mrs. Robert French; Mr. and Mrs. Miss Stalder; Bay St. Louis; and Miss Colodrovich, Gulfport.

Landscape Workshop

Agent John W. Smith approximately 80 people at the Landscape Workshop Center, Tuesday morning at the Extension Center. Extension Center, discussed Home Commercial Landscape; and How's of Pruning and Lawn and Turf maintenance.

Moore, Extension Center, spoke on Designing Ornamentals and Designing Turf Grass.

Continuing Insects of Ornamentals and Grass was the topic discussed by James H. Cochran, Extension Entomologist, and Sparkman, Soil Conservation Service, spoke on Soil Fertilization.

Arrangements were served by the Coast Electric Association.

Workshop

Seven boys from the New Orleans area at the workshop for boys at the Word Seminary. The workshop is conducted by William J. Kelley, S.V.D., Director and County Commissioner. A similar group will be in the workshop sessions at the weekend coming from St. Martinville.

MEETS

Women's Society of Christ Service of the Main Street Methodist Church, met Monday morning in Fellowship Hall. Mrs. W. R. Pitcairn presided over the program on Sym-

Church Begins Building Project

A recent congregational meeting of the Presbyterian Church authorized the letting of contracts for the building of a new educational and fellowship hall annex to the church to begin early in June.

The building committee composed of Dr. Walter Russo, Chairman, Max Dossett, John Middleton, Camille Schaefer, Mrs. George Canaga, Ed Thompson and Ken Teague has announced that a large amount of the cost of the new construction is now in hand either in the form of cash or pledges. Mr. Ken Teague is the architect.

Sy Rosenthal Buried in Massachusetts

Sy Rosenthal, 44, was buried on April 22 at Temple Mount Cemetery in Boston, Mass.

Local Boy Injured

Craig Geoffrey, 14, 304 St. John St., was reported in fairly good condition Monday at Gulfport Memorial Hospital. The youth was injured in a traffic mishap Saturday afternoon in Gulfport, when struck by a car. He was carried to the hospital by a passing motorist after he reportedly ran in front of a car on U.S. Highway 90 at 38th avenue about 5:50 p.m.

Admitted to the hospital for observation, he sustained a head injury, facial abrasions, injury of the left knee and possible internal injuries. Police said the youth ran from the north side of the highway and in front of a car driven by Mrs. Lettie C. Ladner, 49, Rt. 1, Box 151-K, Long Beach, going west on the highway. The boy was carried about 60 feet on the hood of the car. No charges were filed by police.

Craig is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Geoffrey.

OLG COUNCIL TO MEET

Our Lady of the Gulf Parish Council will meet tonight at 7:30 in the Parish Hall.

Paul Hoke, 40, of Bay St. Louis, was reported in fairly good condition Monday at Gulfport Memorial Hospital. The youth was injured in a traffic mishap Saturday afternoon in Gulfport, when struck by a car. He was carried to the hospital by a passing motorist after he reportedly ran in front of a car on U.S. Highway 90 at 38th avenue about 5:50 p.m.

CHALLENGE

MAYOR SCAFIDE

I, John A. Scafide, challenge Andrew K. Martinolich, Jr.; Andrew K. Martinolich, Sr.; J. Norton Haas, Jr.; J. Norton Haas, Sr.; Michael D. Haas; Nicholas M. Haas; Earl Raymond; and any other members of the "committee" for better city government, or their candidates to an open and public discussion of the real issues in this campaign.

The public is entitled to hear and consider the attitudes and feelings of the candidates as well as the leaders of the "committee" for better city government about such municipal problems as

EDUCATION
ASSESSMENTS
CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS
HEALTH AND SANITATION
RECREATION
REALISTIC PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

THE PUBLIC IS URGED TO ATTEND.
HANCOCK COUNTY COURTHOUSE (COURTROOM)
MONDAY, APRIL 28, 1969 - 8:00 p.m.

JOHN A. SCAFIDE, MAYOR

(Pd. Pol. Adv.)

Let The Record Speak!

Last Saturday, April 19th, the "committee" for better city government distributed a "circular" of a dramatized interview between one of their members and Mayor Scafide.

We will not attempt to answer all the baseless innuendos published by this group, but in answer to this circular, we submit the following:

1. On Tuesday, April 15th, two members of the "committee for better city government" Andrew K. Martinolich, Jr., and J. Norton Haas, Jr., came to the City Hall and suggested to Commissioner Glover that there was a discrepancy in the amount of the bond issue for street improvements and the contract price.

2. Commissioner Glover explained that there was no discrepancy and submitted to them a summary of cost as prepared by the engineer. This document is public record and on file at the City Hall.

3. Fortunately for the taxpayers of Bay St. Louis, one bid was submitted which was well under the engineer's cost estimate. We know now that all the estimated sums will not be used and there will be money left over to be deposited in the Bond Sinking Fund to help retire the bonds. This money is restricted, by law, to retiring the bonds.

4. Presently $700,000 of the bond money is invested in short term U.S. Treasury Notes and is drawing interest at a rate in excess of the interest on the bonds. This money is not to be withdrawn until needed to pay project costs.

5. We are sure that any individual of average intelligence can understand that there is no discrepancy. Any informed individual knows that there are other costs in addition to the construction cost, such as engineering and legal fees, interest during construction and other incidental expenses, usually associated with and required in projects such as this.

We make no defense against the other charges implied in this circular. None is necessary.

CONSIDER THIS, TAXPAYERS OF BAY ST. LOUIS

Some members of the committee for better city government have filed at least five law suits in the last two years, impeding, delaying and seemingly preventing the administration of City Government. There are presently two suits pending. Only once have the allegations been found to have any merits in a Court of Law, and then only on a technicality.

Law suits have been filed, which have delayed the street paving project, and misleading information has been stated.

Litigation has cost a resale of bonds, which because of increase in interest rates will cost the tax payers of Bay St. Louis $17,611.57 during the next ten years.

REMEMBER---in spite of undue harassment we have a modern, up-to-date Utilities System that would do credit to a City twice the size of Bay St. Louis, and the street paving project is going steadily forward.

WE SUBMIT THE ABOVE STATEMENTS OVER OUR SIGNATURES.

WHY DON'T THE MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE FOR BETTER CITY GOVERNMENT DO LIKEWISE??????

IT'S TIME THIS COMMITTEE FOR BETTER CITY GOVERNMENT IDENTIFY THEMSELVES!!!

RE-ELECT

JOHN A. SCAFIDE, MAYOR,
J. CYRIL GLOVER, COMMISSIONER, POST #1,

MRS. CHARLES J. BENNETT and DAUGHTER NEW PICK-UP PURCHASED FROM LAMAR-MOORE SALESMAN FRITZ PERANICH.

The second purchase from Lamar-Moore Chevrolet was for Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bennett of Bay St. Louis. The Bennetts were so pleased with the service at Lamar-Moore Chevrolet that they decided to purchase another car. They were offered a new pick-up just like the one they had. Mr. Bennett was another good reason to shop Lamar-Moore Chevrolet. He and Mrs. Bennett are very satisfied with their purchase.

Single girls between the ages of 13 and 17 who live in the Bay St. Louis area are being invited to enter the Mississippi State Miss American Teenager. The state pageant will receive an all-expense paid trip to Palisades Amusement Park in New Jersey in early September for the national finals.

The state pageant is open to all girls residing in areas where no local preliminaries were conducted, as well as to girls who have been qualified through actual competition or by reason of outstanding qualities.

Last year's winner was Mary Love Duplain of Belzoni, while the two state runners-up were Diane Gills of Brookhaven and Jane Ann Sharpe of Hattiesburg. Miss Duplain then went on to become a semi-finalist in the national contest.

Miss American Teenager is the oldest of all such events for girls, now being in its 10th year. Annually, some 300,000 girls take part in local pageants, with the nation's top 54 girls eventually competing in the nationals at Palisades Amusement Park in New Jersey.

There are no swimsuit or talent competitions involved on any level, with all girls in the Mississippi pageant to be judged in simple frocks at the Pageant Banquet, Friday evening, July 11 and in formals at the main pageant, Saturday, July 12. A full program of entertainment will also be offered at all sessions.

Miss Hinson To Marry Mr. Polley

HAVING DECIDED many years ago that the advantages of living in a small town are outweighed by the disadvantages, we're limited when, on occasion, someone mentions a year to return to city life. Most new residents insist that they miss all-day shopping sprees, while the men would enjoy more professional sporting events.

AS FAR as shopping is concerned, almost anything short of a milk cow can be located in local stores, and even if the males lived in New York City, they would probably view most of the Yankee ball games on television just as they do right here in Hancock County. If the urge to pound miles of pavement becomes too strong, New Orleans is just an hour away, and from there almost any city may be reached by jet in less time than it takes to drive to the airport. And many flights are available from the field just outside of Gulfport which is much nearer as the crow flies.

EVEN LOVERS of classical music can't complain since the New Orleans symphony has become an annual April event, and even though the crowd was somewhat smaller this year, most who attended must have been real music lovers. At least applause between movements was less deafening, a sure sign that the larger portion of the audience really came to hear the concert instead of merely appearing to be seen absorbing a smattering of culture!

WE COULD GO ON for pages touting joys of living on the Gulf Coast, but most of our readers have already made the discovery, or they wouldn't be in a position to purchase The Sea Coast Echo. One of the few drawbacks we've noted is the necessity of owning a second car, since the bus which used to run daily routes from Lakeshore to the Bay became a thing of the past about a dozen years ago. Now we've discovered that apparently anyone who doesn't really want to walk won't find themselves about for long. For the past several weeks we've been taking daily strolls simply to obtain some much needed exercise, and every time we step upon the street are offered rides galore. Many even slam on brakes and back their cars a block or so, just to be accommodating. These acts of neighborliness are only one of the many reasons we wouldn't return to an air-polluted metropolis for love nor money!

IN FACT, we've gotten so hepped on this fresh air kick, we're now planning to take up bicycling to points which are too far away for walking. The only drawback is that we've given away two bicycles which were cluttering the utility room, unused for years. As this respite from full time work is temporary, we hesitate to purchase a new vehicle and wonder if there is anyone who happens to have a 26 inch bike just lying around? If so, please call 467-4231, the same number we hope you'll be using to pass on items of interest for the column.

AS THE '68-'69 school year rapidly draws to a close the annual round of pre-graduation activities has gotten underway. One of the larger such events was the third annual employer-employee banquet co-hosted by the Distributive Education and Trade and Industrial Education clubs at Bay High. The dinner which began at 8 p.m. Thursday, April 17, at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club was the most elaborate to date. The menu consisted of filet mignon with bordelaise sauce, English peas with water chestnuts, stuffed potato royal, Caesar salad, hot rolls, coffee and ice cream parfaits. Tommy Brooks, instructor, introduced students and their guests and Eddie Wallace presented speaker, Lamar Norworthy. Students and their invited guests were: Olga Asturias, Tommy Wallace; Monnie Breland, Mr. and Mrs. Dave McDonald; Judy Carver, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sheehan and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carver; Nancy Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Belote; Patty Green, Mr. and Mrs. Cato Fomason; Dennis Goettrey; Robert Butsch, Jr.; Rufus Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Longo; Roy Knight, Mr. and Mrs. James Ballard; Judy Marquar, Mr. and Mrs. James Evans; Karen Poolson, Don Jeffcoat and David Taylor; Paulette Meyers, Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Ramsey and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith. Also, Charles Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Porter; Edmond Schindler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Langford; Joe Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Compton; and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Carver; Eddie Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. John Kramer; Herbert Zengering, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Hubbard; Cynthia Kramley, Mr. and Mrs. John Dacklar, and Richard Sorrentino, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Blackledge and Carolyn De-mians; Marvin Kramley, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hill, Sr. and Jr.; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill, Ashbury Morreale, Mr. and Mrs. A. Anthony Morreale, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pernicaro and Chris Yboe, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bufkin, Mrs. Norworthy, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McCulloch and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Caldwell attended as special guests. Incidentally, we are very grateful to Mrs. Joseph Sheehan for providing us with the above information.

CO-HOSTESSES Rita (Mrs. Sonny) Wolfe and Evelyn (Mrs. Charlie) Cox presented Nancy (Mrs. Lucien, Jr.) Cox most novel and useful gifts at the bon voyage luncheon in her honor Wednesday at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club. Nancy and her mother Grace (Mrs. Syd) Goidt leave April 20, for an extended European trip during which they will visit nine countries. Guests were: Gerry (Mrs. Lucien, Sr.) Cox; Rita (Mrs. Roger) Cox; Pat (Mrs. Charles) Dickson; Jill (Mrs. Gerald) Cox; Dot (Mrs. Jack) Picard; Myri (Mrs. Michael) Hase; Margaret Hadden, Gerri (Mrs. Sam) Blanchard and Bobbie (Mrs. Henry) Hadden.

THE SUN SHINE brightly on lovely bride Elizabeth Dunn when she and Brandon Ferrell exchanged vows at St. Clare's at 11:30 a.m. Saturday, May (Mrs. Joseph) Lenoir was among the many who came from New Orleans to attend the ceremony.

CAP AND HENRY Cap-dee and their daughter Gladys

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus R. Hinson of Bay St. Louis announced the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Gail, to Edward LeRoy Polley of Jacksonville, Fla. Mr. Polley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Polley of Easton, Kan.

Miss Hinson is a 1963 graduate of Bay High School and of Meadows-Drachman Business College in New Orleans. After living two years in South Carolina, she currently resides in Fort Worth, Tex. where she is employed by Pan American Petroleum Corporation.

Mr. Polley is a 1961 graduate of Easton High School, Easton, Kan. He served four years in the United States Air Force in Europe and North Africa, attended Columbia Bible College, Columbia, S. C., and is currently attending Florida Junior College at Jacksonville.

The wedding is being planned for June 14 in Fort Worth. The couple will reside in Jacksonville after the wedding.

Kevin, Colleen, Sharon and Stephanie. She also enjoyed a family reunion of the Thriftville during her stay in the city.

WE'RE VERY HAPPY to report that Carol (Mrs. Francis) Shubert, who has been critically ill following recent surgery in a New Orleans hospital is now reported to be improving. Carol is the sister of Leo and Edgar Moran; Jo (Mrs. J.T.) Jacobs and Eunice (Mrs. Rene, Sr.) Bermond.

FORMER BAY city policeman, Jack Lader is also on the mend following surgery at Hancock General.

THE SEASON'S crop of new babies is now coming in steadily. Jeanne and Donald Camp's long awaited first born, Tayna Michele, weighed in at an even six pounds at an Alexandria, La. hospital Friday, Apr. 11. Phyl Lassus, the jubilant maternal grandmother, sped to Alexandria the same day little Tayna put in her appearance and grandpa Jimmy managed to get away Wednesday to spend an extra long weekend with the new arrival and other members of the family.

BECOMING GRANDPARENTS twice in the same week isn't exactly easy, but Lottie and Alvin Lader managed to do just that! On Monday Patti and Lucien (JIMMY) presented them and her parents, the Gene Burkes with a five pound, 13 ounce

Waveland Homemakers Hold Meeting

Waveland Extension Homemakers Club met last Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Edward LeVasseur with Mrs. Earle Gates, president, conducting the business session.

Mrs. W. W. Ford offered the devotional and the pledge of allegiance was given by the group.

Members were urged to attend the National Country Women's Council meeting scheduled for September 30 and October 1 at Buena Vista Hotel and Motel, Biloxi.

The session is sponsored by the Mississippi National Homemakers Council and the Mississippi Farm Bureau Women.

Miss Ruth Strahan, Extension Economist, gave some helpful hints, with slides on salad secrets and members brought salads for tasting, and the recipes.

The May meeting will be in the home of Mrs. K.T. Breland on Jordan River.

daughter to be christened Kimberly Ruth. She was born at 5:25 p.m. Monday, Apr. 14, at Gulfport Memorial.

ON FRIDAY, Apr. 18, Kay and Al Lader welcomed their second daughter, Stacey Elizabeth, who arrived at 12:30 p.m. at Hancock General Hospital. Her sister, Shannon took the news quite calmly, but maternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Nowlin of Baton Rouge appeared much more enthusiastic over the new arrival. Of course Shannon is only about 18 months old.

Give Herbert Wise Memorial Devotional

Mrs. Phillip Daniel gave the devotional in memory of Herbert Wise at Bay-Waveland Garden Club's meeting Thursday, April 10, at the Garden Center.

During the business session conducted by Mrs. Clarence Evans, president, officers for the coming year were elected and a report on the Mississippi State convention of Garden Clubs was given by Mrs. Evelyn, who noted that Bay-Waveland Club received six awards.

Awards included a certificate for flower shows with Mrs. Herbert Baron, chairman, yellow ribbon for year book compiled by Mrs. James D. Ryan; blue ribbon for visiting gardens, Mrs. Leo Seal, Spring Pilgrimage chairman; green, white and purple rosette for education landscape design, Mrs. John P. Stearns, program chairman; blue rosette for High School Gardeners, Mrs. J. E. Erwin, Director Tiger Lily High School Gardeners, and purple rosette, individual excellence in horticulture, Mrs. Herbert Baron.

Mrs. Evans was re-elected president for the coming year; Mrs. James D. Ryan was named first vice president; Mrs. George L. Seuzenau, second vice president; Mrs. Harold Powell, recording secretary; Mrs. Rene de Montigny, Jr., corresponding secretary and Mrs. J. H. Duggan, Jr., treasurer.

Mrs. Randal F. Gray introduced the speaker Mrs. C. J. Wallace, a native of Colorado, now residing in Pass Christian.

Mrs. Wallace, who discussed Oriental Arranging, showed films of Japanese arrangements and spoke on Japanese culture and Ikebana.

Mrs. Wallace, immediate past president of Ikebana International, New Orleans Chapter, and a student flower show judge, is presently attending an Ikebana school of floral arranging in New Orleans.

Spring flowers decorated the tea table for the social hour when Mrs. H. M. Keefe, hostess, was assisted by Mesdames Michael D. Haas, Ben Hill Jr., Paul M. Miller, Joseph E. Vi-guerie Jr., R. P. Akers, P.J. Treutel, J. A. Evans and John H. Cook Jr.

Approximately 15 members of the Main Street United Methodist Church Women's Society of Christian Service attended the WSCS District annual conference in Long Beach last Tuesday.

Dr. Frank Lanbach, Syracuse, N. Y., sponsor of the Each One Teach One Program which enables numbers of people throughout the world in overcoming illiteracy, was guest speaker.

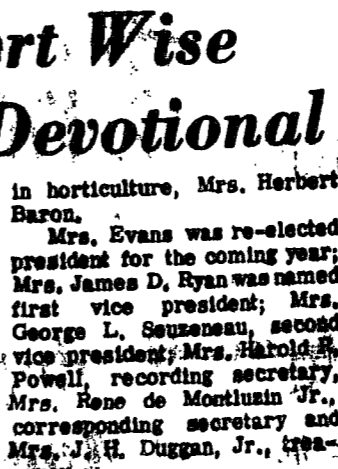

Parish Social
Held at OLG

The Rt. Rev. James J. Hannan, pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, welcomed approximately 250 guests at the Parish social Sunday evening.

A chorus group from Keeler Air Force Base, Biloxi, entertained for the occasion.

Mrs. Stella Cox, chairman, and Mrs. Lawrence Jacobi, co-chairman, were assisted by ladies of the Parish in hosting the affair.

Dolly prays

THE TWO little ones are Lottie and Mayor Garfield Ladner's third and fourth grandchildren.

THESE ARE ONLY a couple of the many blessed events scheduled to put in appearances within the next few weeks. Linda and Randy Poirier are looking forward to their second visit from the stork around the end of next month. Linda was tested at a baby shower by Annie (Mrs. Bruce) Favre last Wednesday.

BEVERLY AND John Binegar's second is also due around the middle of May. GINNY AND F. E. Fawell will be visited by the long-legged bird on or about June 1st, for the fifth time.

THE TAGGS, Elizabeth and George and children, have moved into a 'new' home on Farrar Lane with the intention of becoming permanent Waveland residents.

DOT AND BUD THOMAS were overjoyed to receive a long distance call from son Greg, now stationed in Thailand, last week. Greg's tour of duty will soon be completed and he's scheduled to return to the states in mid July.

SIDNEY WOODS is in line for a special get well wish having been very much under the weather for the past two weeks.

ALSO AILING is Jeanne (Mrs. Fred) Lister—she was hospitalized for tests and discovered that she had suffered three heart attacks and is also diabetic. She is now feeling much better and joined husband Fred at their vacation home on Saturday.

A STAUNCH group of chaperones accompanied the Bay High band to Jackson for state contests Friday and Saturday. They were Richard Ford, director, and his pretty blonde wife Rose Ann; Mary (Mrs. Otis) Winnard, Kathleen and Bill Terry, The Arnold Sodmans, the Davis Williams and Gladys (Mrs. Lea) Hank.

ANOTHER HOPE you're feeling better greeting is on the way to Emelda Kearney who was missed by customers at Carter's Fine Foods on Saturday. 'Miss Emelda' as she is fondly known, was forced to stay at home due to a badly swollen ankle.

THE SATISFIERS will play for another of those fine dances at St. Clare's Parish Hall beginning at 9 p.m. Saturday, Apr. 26. Donation is only $5 per couple and tickets may be obtained at Haverly's, from any member of the Altar Society, or purchased at the door.

SATURDAY, APRIL 26, was a big day at Mat and Jimmy Ryan's Union Street home. Don Pat cut his 16th birthday cake and the baby, Theresa Marie, her seventh, at a family dinner party.

COMPLAINT DEPT. - Now that all six lanes on U.S. 90 have at last opened, we've received several phone calls pleading that we grip about the lack of turn arrows on the light at the Main Street intersection. There have been already several mishaps and we hope the situation will be remedied before one or more fatalities occur.

FISHING NEWS - Angling success is an on-again, off-again proposition, mostly depending upon the weather these days. Torrential rains have muddied rivers and bayous, but those who don't mind braving northerly winds have picked up large numbers of flounder and soft shell crabs all along the beach front on nights when the tide was low.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY - Climbing roses in shades of pink, gold, red and purple white decorating fences all over town; berry pickers of every age, shape and size, lining the railroad tracks daily; hordes of small boys discarding school clothing for bathing suits, regardless of the temperature, the moment the final afternoon bell rings and the shrill sounds of their voices as they swarm beachward, come rain or shine!

Girl Scout Banquet Held At Pearlington

Mrs. Edward Snow, Pearlington, Neighborhood Girl Scout Chairman, was guest speaker at the Father-daughter Banquet Friday night in O.L.G. School cafeteria. Mrs. Snow discussed Day Camp.

Host Troops were Troops 282 with Mrs. Frank Hill leader and 115, Mrs. E. V. Alme, leader. Both Troops are sponsored by Our Lady of the Gulf Parish.

Nature in the Springtime was the theme of the affair. English ivy, mock-orange, blossoms and spring flowers decorated the tables.

Special guest of the group were the Rev. Richard Somers, Our Lady of the Gulf Church, and Edward Snow.

Homemakers Meet

Bay St. Louis Extension Homemakers Club met Thursday in the home of Mrs. David Peranich with Mrs. Harris Boudreau as co-hostess.

Mrs. Leroy Luke/president, conducted the business session and Mrs. Jeanne Williams presented minutes of the last meeting in the absence of the secretary Mrs. Leo Tacon.

Mrs. Francis Poolson, dress review chairman, discussed the event to be held May 31, and also spoke on home yard improvements.

Plans for scheduling another workshop on molding was discussed by Mrs. Luke and Mrs. Eida Duke, council president, who noted the Council had purchased molds which will be available at the Agriculture Center for use by club members.

A workshop on quilting is scheduled for May 8. Mrs. Pat Rutherford displayed patterns for quilting.

Mrs. Duke told the group of the meeting Monday night with the Chamber of Commerce, Supervisors and Council officers pertaining to plans for a Hancock County fair in August.

Entries for the flower show to be staged April 30 at the Agriculture Center must be brought in between 8 and 10 a.m. The show will be open to visitors from 2 to 4 p.m.

Mrs. H.M. Clanton and Mrs. Edna Wally will be hostesses for the May meeting.

Bridge Winners

Winners of games played by Bay-Waveland Bridge Club members Monday night at the Garden Center were Miss Amelia Scafide and T. J. Garner, first; Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Waters, second and Mrs. Nancy Williams and Mrs. T. J. Garner, third.

ANNOUNCES FOR

COMMISSIONER POST 2

TO THE VOTERS OF BAY ST. LOUIS:

In announcing my candidacy for Commissioner of Finance, Post No. 2, I wish to state at the outset that this office is NOT A PAID position. All salaries and expenses are paid by the City. I am elected to this important position. I will employ only qualified and experienced persons but no member of my immediate family.

Most of the voters are familiar with my background and principles, especially those pertinent to the interests of the taxpayers. As in the past, it will be my policy to keep the records open to the public at all times and I will endeavor to have periodic audits made by qualified firms.

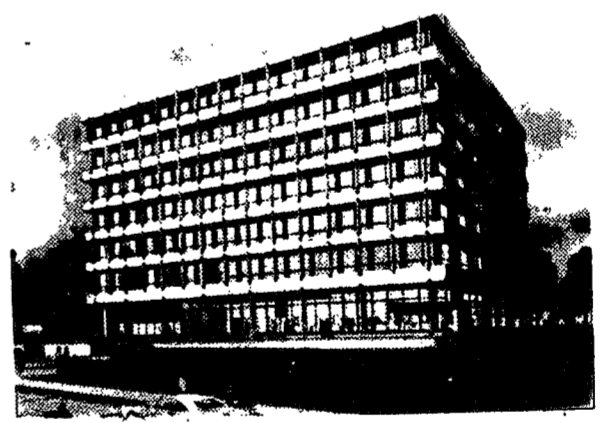

I seek this position independently being endorsed by no individual, machine or faction. I ask for support and votes from all individuals. After all, like a large corporation, you the taxpayers are the stockholders who hold the voting power to choose the officers who will guide the destiny of your City for the next four years.

The campaign will be short, a matter of days, and I may not be able to see all of you before election. In that event I would sincerely appreciate your considering this a personal message from me to you asking for your vote and support.

RESPECTFULLY,
A.C. (MITCH) MITCHELL

(Submitted and paid for by A.C. Mitchell)

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK Clarence Cameron is the new game warden in Hancock County. He hails from Klin Miss., and has charge of the northern part of the county. Pat Toomey takes care of the southern part. Clarence said he is thankful to the Miss. Fish and Game Commission for letting him be a working member of that organization. His phone No. is 467-5813. Best of luck, Buddy from all our sportsmen.

Those who could stand the cold weather and water of the past few nights managed to get a few soft crabs. When the weather straightens out and warmer weather arrives soft crabbing should be at its best. Ask Eddie Marquez, he knows. Too cold for him, he said.

Advice from local fishermen is not to sit around the house asking yourself if it is time for that first spring fishing trip. If it is time to bring up the question at all, it is time to go fishing. Our advice is to go. Fresh water fish are biting most anywhere. They are hitting surface lures.

Had a letter from our old fishing partner Cliff Foster of Memphis asking when green trout fishing will begin. They are hitting good right now. Buddy. Better get on down this way.

Looking forward to that 3-day fishing trip to Chandelier Island this weekend with my brother, son, son-in-law and others. Looking for some big ones but will settle for a good catch of any kind. Making the trip on a charter boat.

Why not spend that vacation in Bay St. Louis? There is plenty of fishing, crabbing, both soft and hard; golf, skiing, camping, etc. Real folks to enjoy it with.

August Raunet and Jerome Carver are still catching bass and perch. They won't tell you how many they get or where.

If you enjoy fly fishing or casting, all it takes is a boat, motor, and fishing license. Ask others where to go. There is still some good fishing spots in this neck of the woods. Try talking to Watson Johns, he's one of the best.

John Plouc has been fishing all his life horsebouts. Give him a cast net and he'll catch most anything. That's one way of getting them, John.

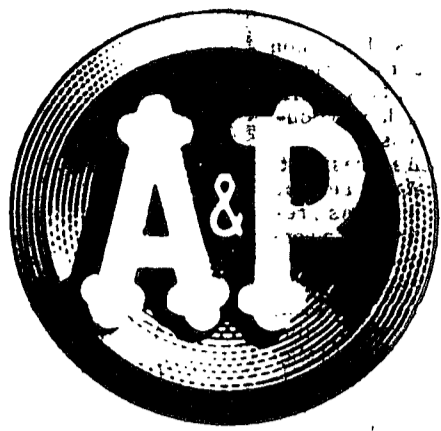

Dick Montoye has started fishing again now that the hunting season is over. He, his son and nephews caught some fresh water fish over the weekend.

Johnny Scarfide, His Honor, the Mayor, although pretty busy gets in a few hours of fishing at off time. Johnny is a good fly fisherman and catches a lot of them.

Windows of the Soul

Eyes have been called the windows of the soul. Clarity, expression and size—all of these are supposed to reveal character. A child's eyes seem innocent. But small, closely-placed eyes may also indicate deception. Some even say that you can tell a criminal by his eyes.

Calling it nonsense, even scientists find it hard to dispel the old wives' tales that have persisted for centuries.

Eyes, in a certain sense, can be the windows of the soul—precious windows through which you look at life. Don't judge another man by his eyes. Look instead through eyes of understanding and compassion, for in God's sight we are all equal. If your inner vision has been a bit faulty lately, why not start going to church next Sunday?

'Round the Kiln

BY CLAIRE MITCHELL

All six entries from Annunciation school received superior or excellent ratings in the Gulf Coast Forensic contest on Saturday in Pass Christian. Tony Hodges and Agnel Moran finished second in their categories. Receiving superior ratings were Donna Edelman, Perry Moran and Tony Hodges. Ricky Mitchell, Sherrell Neel and Agnel Moran received excellent ratings.

The newly formed Mississippi Gulf Coast Catholic Conference will meet at Annunciation school on Sunday May 4th at 2 p.m. This conference involving most of the Catholic grade schools on the coast, hopes to get a better athletic program going in the Catholic schools. It will include football for boys. Both boys and girls will have softball, basketball, and possibly track and volleyball.

This will be the fifth meeting of the group. Mr. Wesley Hnau has attended the first four meetings in other towns along the coast. Men and women in our parish are invited to the meeting to learn more about the program. The program will include grades three thru eight.

New officers for Annunciation P-TA were elected at the regular monthly meeting. Officers for the coming year are president, Mrs. Cleveland Wyatt, vice-president, Wasley Haas, secretary, Mrs. Grifon Shiyon, treasurer, Mrs. L. J. Breaux and reporter, Mrs. Jerry Mitchell. Installation of officers will be held at the May meeting.

After the meeting, a science fair was on display in each classroom, many interesting projects were on display. Refreshments were served by first grade mothers.

The parent-student game

PARTICIPATING IN a University of Mississippi Law School symposium, "Man's landing on the Moon: Legal Implications and Perspectives," were, from left, Lucien M. Gex, Jr. of Bay St. Louis, counsel, General Electric Co., Mississippi Test Support Department; Dr. Stephen Gorove, chairman of the Ole Miss Graduate Program in Law; Hugh C. Clayton of New Albany, student panelist; Paul G. Dembling of Washington, general counsel of National Aeronautics and Space Administration; student panelist Robert S. Forster at Oxford; and Mrs. Eileen Galloway, special consultant, U. S. Senate Committee on Aeronautical and Space Sciences.

Officials To Have New Brand Book

The Brands Department of the Livestock Bureau is presently preparing to issue the 1969 Brand Book for distribution to Sale Barns, Chancery Clerks, and Sheriff's Offices.

The law requires that for a person to use a brand, it must be recorded every five years or ownership will be lost. H. L. has been re-scheduled for this Friday, April 26th at 7 p.m. in the school gym. All parents are invited to participate.

A girl scout arts and crafts workshop was held in Picayune last week. Those from this area attending were Mesdames Joseph Cuevas, J. C. Mautray, Robert Clapp, Cleveland Wyatt and Jerry Mitchell.

Boy scouts from Kiln, had a weekend campout at Catahoula well. The boys cooked supper for the adult leaders and committed, and then put on skits for entertainment.

Vinson, Director of the Livestock Theft Bureau, indicated that it is also a dangerous practice since two people may be using the same brand.

While the majority of brand owners have re-recorded their brands for the present five-year period, there are many who failed to do this when the expiration date of June 30, 1967, came around.

H.D. Ellis, Supervisor of Brands, said, "Livestock owners who wish to record a brand, or to re-record an expired brand, are urged to contact this office and we will be glad to design a brand or renew the existing one."

Ellis also pointed out that while many people in Mississippi did register brands, a majority of the cattle stolen did not bear a brand of any kind. "To aid our division in its investigation we would like to see more cattlemen using brands," he said.
